“Miami County Commissioners Announce Animal Shelter Program”

The Miami County Commissioners announced today a new partnership to educate and promote animal control and adoption in Miami County.

The Commissioners, through the Miami County Animal Shelter, has partnered with WOTVC Piqua local TV 5 on an informative pet TV program called “Wags & Whiskers” hosted by Animal Shelter Director Marcia Doncaster and co-hosted by her rescue dog, Thor.

The program will cover topics such as: Meet the Animal Shelter, Choosing the Right Dog, Animal Shelter Adoption Process, General Health and Maintenance Tips and Training Tips For Every Dog Owner. Future episodes are expected to air monthly with an occasional guest speaker. The program is taped at the Piqua’s TV5 station, Miami County Animal Shelter and other interesting locations within Miami County.

The goal of this program is to give pet owners helpful information about the care of their pets and highlight the Miami County Animal Shelter’s many opportunities for animal lovers.

For current TV program times you can check your local TV listing on Piqua Channel 5 or their website at www.piquatv5.com . You can watch all of the episodes anytime on the Miami County Animal Shelter website at www.miamicountyohio.gov/shelter . Select the Wags & Whiskers tab on the left and choose which episode you want to watch.
